2. GENERAL 2.1. These General Terms and Conditions are applicable to all offers, quotations, agreements, single orders and other legal relationships of MIJNFINANCE to provide services on the area of collecting (portfolios of) Claims, performing legal services and providing other credit management services. 2.2. If any stipulation of these General Terms and Conditions entirely or partially contradicts any stipulation of compulsory law, and is therefore destroyed or considered null and void, the other stipulations remain fully in force. 2.3. Possible deviant conditions of Client are expressly rejected by MIJNFINANCE and are only binding for MIJNFINANCE if and as far as MIJNFINANCE has agreed upon these conditions in writing. 2.4. All offers and quotations are done under the condition of possible written suspensory conditions and regular rates from MIJNFINANCE, unless these are explicitly indicated otherwise. The offers that MIJNFINANCE does, are valid for 5 working days and are excl. taxes, unless indicated in writing. 2.5. Client has to agree with the agreement before MIJNFINANCE provides services. After (oral) agreement, MIJNFINANCE can start its services, but preserves its right to demand written agreement before starting its activities. By signing an agreement, a digital version of the file is also created by means of email, MIJNFINANCE's website or the MIJNFINANCE App. 2.6. Unless explicitly agreed upon otherwise in writing, agreements are concluded for a period of twelve months, with tacit renewal for always the same period, unless one of the parties has terminated the agreement in writing or by registered mail within 2 months before expiry of any period. Termination by Client by e-mail needs to be addressed to support@Mijnfinance.nl.nl. The rules of legislative consumer law apply if the Client does not act on behalf of the company or profession. After termination, MIJNFINANCE's provision of services will be continued with regard to current Files, though MIJNFINANCE is entitled to terminate its activities and charge the Client for the Extrajudicial Collection Fees for the Claims it had to collect (in conformity with the most current rate structure) and costs of third parties if further activities are not deemed necessary. After finishing the current Files, the agreement is terminated and only the obligations that should be continued, such as the Client's obligation to share evidence of its claims with MIJNFINANCE. 2.7. Agreements with or promises made by MIJNFINANCE' staff are non-binding to MIJNFINANCE, unless these agreements or promises are confirmed by its management in writing. 2.8. MIJNFINANCE is authorized to reject a File or a portfolio of Files, possibly without stating reasons. 2.9. MIJNFINANCE is entitled to transfer both new and current Files, including all rights and duties, to a third party and have the agreement executed by third parties. By involving third parties, MIJNFINANCE will observe special prudence so the Client's merits are not unreasonably damaged. 2.10. In case Client's address is changed and/or legal form is changed, it is obliged to immediately inform MIJNFINANCE of such in writing. Any damage that MIJNFINANCE suffers because of a change of legal form or termination, bankruptcy, lack of management or any other way of active or passive prevention of the observation of Client's duties on behalf of the company, such as nonpayment of MIJNFINANCE's invoices by Client, are borne by the natural person that concluded the agreement on behalf of Client with MIJNFINANCE, or the natural person that caused this damage because of act or neglect - as manager or authorized person of Client. 2.11. If MIJNFINANCE does not claim strict observation of the General Terms and Conditions, this does not limit MIJNFINANCE's right to claim Client's observation and never relieves Client of its duties, based on the agreement. 3. RATES AND INVOICING 3.1. MIJNFINANCE provides its services based on a service agreement or based on a (single) no-cure-no-pay agreement, unless explicitly agreed upon otherwise. No-cure-no-pay agreements only apply to regular collection activities that MIJNFINANCE performs from the capacity of its standard workflow, and never based on legal activities, investigational activities or costs originating from achieved results or (incorrect) non-observation by Client of its commitments towards MIJNFINANCE, with the commitment to be of service in the collection procedure of a File in particular. 3.2. MIJNFINANCE invoices Client in conformity with the Rate Sheets, which are provided with the information, these General Terms and Conditions and the agreement. When concluding the agreement, Client expressly declares to have received this information and rate sheets, and to agree with these. If it finds out not to have received these documents, Client will attend MIJNFINANCE to this fact so it can be provided after all. 3.3. MIJNFINANCE is entitled to periodically change its rates by releasing new Rate Sheets, which also apply to the current Files. If a change leads to a price increase over 10%, Client is entitled to terminate the agreement in writing within 2 months after release of these new rates. 3.4. Payment of the amounts Client is indebted to MIJNFINANCE is to take place within 14 days after date of invoice, without any deduction, settlement, postponement or debt comparison. Client authorizes MIJNFINANCE to collect the invoiced amounts by means of direct debit, unless explicitly agreed upon otherwise in writing. 3.5. If Client does not (timely) comply with its commitments towards MIJNFINANCE, Client is legally in default without a notice of default being necessary and Client bears all costs to receive extrajudicial and judicial settlement. If Client acts on behalf of a profession or company, it is indebted collection costs that amount 15% of the value of the unsettled invoices, with a minimum of € 85,-, which deviates from the conditions in article 2 of the Netherlands Extra-judicial Collection Fees Decree. 3.6. If the payment term is exceeded, possibly because of a counter-entry, MIJNFINANCE is entitled to charge 1,25% interest per month and/or part of the month, from the expiry date of its invoice, without a notice of default being necessary for this. 3.7. Objections to invoices have to be sent to MIJNFINANCE within 14 days after invoicing, after which term the invoice is deemed to be accepted. Any objection or protest against the amounts MIJNFINANCE invoiced, does not postpone the payment term and payment obligation of Client. 3.8. MIJNFINANCE is always entitled to settle unsettled invoices with amounts it manages for Client, irrespective from what capacity it manages these amounts. 3.9. MIJNFİNANCE is entitled to use payments by Client as it deems appropriate, irrespective of the description that Client provides with the payment. 3.10. Unless otherwise agreed via written contract, Client agrees to MIJNFİNANCE exclusively and/or primarily digitally invoicing her, as well as to exclusively provide these to Client via the MIJNFİNANCE App, which the Client has access to. 3.11. If Client means multiple (legal) persons, and/or if Client enables third parties to use MIJNFİNANCE's services via its agreement with MIJNFİNANCE, these parties are all jointly and severally liable and bound to comply with Client's or earlier indicated third parties' commitments, originating from the agreement, irrespective of which of these parties MIJNFİNANCE indicates to be the invoiced party or party entitled to the Claim. Client is primarily responsible for what parties use its agreement and can revoke this authorization, and MIJNFİNANCE is entitled to reject the right to such access of third parties to its services. 3.12. If Client does not comply with its (payment) obligations from the capacity of the agreement with and/or the services of MIJNFİNANCE, MIJNFİNANCE has the right - though not the obligation - to entirely or partially suspend its activities for Client and charge its no-cure-no-pay success provision for every File for which amounts have or will be received, whether or not MIJNFİNANCE has agreed a more favourable rate or provision with Client. 3.13. No refunds are deducted from MIJNFİNANCE's services and products for the units or residual service period the Client purchased in advance. 3.14. If a Claim is deemed by MIJNFİNANCE to not be legally viable to be increased with - or have added to - Extra-judicial Collection Fees, such as - but not excluding other circumstances - consumer credit or a judicial verdict, and parties have not explicitly agreed to a fixed fee for the related File, a fixed rate of 15% will be owed to MIJNFİNANCE by Client, calculated over the amount of moneys that the MIJNFİNANCE has collected. The clauses as determined in articles 8.8. and 8.13. will remain in full effect. 4. CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVACY 4.1. In the framework of a File or credit management services by MIJNFİNANCE, Client is committed to keep information it is provided with a secret and is not allowed to transfer it to third parties or make it available, except with explicit written authorization from MIJNFİNANCE in advance. This non-disclosure clause has no effect on any information that was known to Client previous to being informed by MIJNFİNANCE or is deemed to be public knowledge. 4.2. Client complies with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), shall not transfer any personal data to MIJNFİNANCE which is deemed to not be viable for transfer under the regime of the GDPR and will indemnify MIJNFİNANCE for any damage or liability which MIJNFİNANCE might suffer or be exposed to in the matter of processing such personal data. 4.3. MIJNFİNANCE's Privacy Statement is available at its website, www.Mijnfinance.nl.nl, and is provided by written request of Client. 4.4. As far as Client has a privacy statement and/or should have based on legal provisions, it is to inform its Customers with the fact that any information that Client receives from Customers can be used to collect Claims, collect credit information, collect (in)solvency-information and creating Files, possibly via third parties. 4.5. Excluding original copies of verdicts which are necessary for the execution of a legal title, Client will refrain from leaving original copies of documents in the possession of MIJNFİNANCE. 6. COMMITMENTS OF THE CLIENT 6.1. If Client does not observe any agreement it concluded with MIJNFİNANCE, MIJNFİNANCE is entitled to suspend its commitments based on any agreement between

Before the Client provides MIJNFINANCE with a File and as far as any laws and/ or legislation dictates such, Client is committed to send a notice of default to Customer in conformity with the applicable law and legislation. In case of absence of such, Client bears the risk that Customer cannot be charged the Extra-judicial Collection Fees and MIJNFINANCE is entitled to on-charge Client with all non-recoverable costs in the framework of a File. Client will refrain from every measure or act that could impede the collection of Files, unless these measures have been explicitly agreed upon with MIJNFINANCE and MIJNFINANCE does not experience disadvantageous consequences of this or is compensated by Client for any disadvantageous consequences. 6.3. Client acknowledges that MIJNFINANCE has social commitments towards Customers in the framework of its membership with the Dutch Federation of certified collection agencies (NVI), the general supervision of the Financial Markets Authority (AFM) and the Consumer & Market Authorities (ACM), and renders its cooperation - both during and after termination of the agreement or cooperation - that MIJNFINANCE may expect from Client within reason, in the framework of aforementioned commitments, such as polite communication with MIJNFINANCE and Customers, submitting relevant documents at first request of MIJNFINANCE so far as they are needed to prove the Claim in an objective way as well as servicing MIJNFINANCE in any inquiry the Compliance Department of the MIJNFINANCE on the subjects that MIJNFINANCE deems relevant for its obligations towards the NVI, ACM, AFM and Dutch laws and regulations in general. The relevant costs can also be charged to Client based on advance payment before the service has been provided, but MIJNFINANCE is not obligated to act thusly. As long as the advance payment is not received, MIJNFINANCE is not bound to perform further activities, and MIJNFINANCE is also not bound to such suspension. 8.4. MIJNFINANCE is entitled to terminate the File in case of insufficient known possibilities for recovery of Customer, and/or further treatment of the File is not considered opportune, and/or MIJNFINANCE (possibly) suffers material or immaterial damage because of the execution of the File. If MIJNFINANCE believes the reason for termination of the File can be found in act or neglect of Client, MIJNFINANCE is entitled to charge the Client with Extra-judicial Collection Fees. 8.7. Payment by Customer is relevant when Customer has (partially) settled the Claim to MIJNFINANCE, and/or directly to Client. Payment is equated with a quid pro quo from Customer towards Client, compensation of the Claim, credit entry, settlement or a delivery or return of goods. Client is to immediately inform MIJNFINANCE when Customer makes a payment or delivers another kind of performance, which extends to settlement of its Claim, and provides MIJNFINANCE insight in this. 8.8. Example of proportional division*: Main Sum: € 100,- / Collection Fees € 40,- / Total € 140,- Collected € 70,- (50% of € 140,-) => MIJNFİNANCE charges Client: € 20,- (50% Collection Fees) => Client receives = € 50,- *This example does not reflect any and all possibilities and does not take special circumstances into account. No rights may therefor be derived from it. 8.10. Payments Customer makes, should be transferred to Stichting Derdengelden MIJNFİNANCE's account. If the Customer pays one or more indebted amounts for the Claims that have been transferred to MIJNFİNANCE directly to Client, Client is to immediately report this to MIJNFİNANCE, though within a maximum of 5 days. Financial settlement then takes place in correspondence with the aforementioned. MIJNFİNANCE is entitled to transfer a File to Debt Surveillance if MIJNFİNANCE believes collection is not possible on a short term, unless explicitly agreed upon otherwise in writing. All amounts collected during Debt Surveillance are divided on 50% – 50% basis between MIJNFİNANCE and Client. 8.16.
